

Solar Living Institute Board of Directors Qualifications

Qualifications for Potential Board Members:

Each board member should demonstrate the following characteristics in order to contribute positively to the board and organization.

- passionately dedicated to the Solar Living Institute mission of promoting sustainable living through inspirational environmental education
- collaborative and cooperative
- strategic, visionary thinker, problem solver
- independent-minded and also able to work as part of a team
- well-connected to potential resources
- ability to give or raise $5,000 per year for the SLI either in cash or in-kind

All board members should possess and be willing to contribute at least two of the following three characteristics: WORK, WISDOM, WEALTH.

Professional Areas of Representation: This list of professional areas defines what types of skills are needed on the board; some individuals may possess more than one area of expertise.

- 1) legal
- 2) financial
- 3) education
- 4) green building
- 5) renewable energy
- 6) government
- 7) fundraising/development
- 8) communications/PR
- 9) organizational development